

Willy Cigars

The Tobacco

All tobacco is selected by Willy from his family's Dominican Republic plantation. Willy Cigars only incorporates the best part of the leaf, which is grown from Cuban Seed, then aged for a minimum of 3 years. Willy selects the tobacco leaves with the most veins for the filler & binder to bring that sought after aroma of the cigar.

Wrapper Tobacco – Cigar wrappers are made from 100% Connecticut Shade Leaf that has been aged for a minimum of a year. In order to achieve the best texture and aroma for the wrapper, Willy selects only the finest, smoothest, less veined leaves.

Cuban Line – Dominican, Mexican Nanyary, Nicaragua Visa, Honduran, Ecuador Binder with Carajo Wrapper (Carajo Wrapper aged 2 years). Close to a Cuban cigar – a very fine cigar.

Dominican grown tobacco combined with a Connecticut Shade Leaf wrapper brings you a most enjoyable cigar.

Willy Cigars

Meet Willy

Willy was born in Santa Clara, Cuba on June 25th, 1950. In 1958, at just eight years old, Willy began working with his grandfather in the cigar business. His grandfather instilled the tools of the cigar-making trade in Willy.

In 1976 Willy furthered his skills while working at the "Romeo Y Julieta" factory in Cuba. He remained at the cigar factory for 12 years. He then traveled to the U.S. and began working at the "Cuban Cigar Factory" in San Diego, CA. He kept his education ongoing by learning the many blending combinations possible for the perfect cigar. Willy remained there for eight years before moving his family to Chandler, AZ.

Now "Willy Cigars" resides in Arizona, bringing his many years of experience and techniques that go into creating a cigar that has the best aroma and taste possible. Willy knows that the Willy Cigar you chose will bring you a beautiful moment of cigar enjoyment.
